GCSO LAW ENFORCEMENT SUMMARY

FEBRUARY 6, 2017 – FEBRUARY 12, 2017

On Monday, February 6, 2017, Deputy P. Baxley served Angela Love Garrett (42) with a Violation of Probation arrest warrant at the Gulf County Detention Facility (GCDF).

On February 6, Stephanie R. Martin (42) surrendered herself at the GCDF. The Gulf County Sheriff's Office (GCSO) held a warrant for her arrest for Grand Theft. Deputy M. Manley responded to the GCDF and served the arrest warrant. Martin was turned over to the GCDF.

On Tuesday, February 7, the GCSO received a possible sexual abuse on a child complaint. The investigation has been assigned to the GCSO Criminal Investigations Division (CID). Investigator L. Dickey continues to investigate.

On February 7, Deputy C. Harvey executed a transport order and transported Tatiana Nicole Davis (20) from the Bay County Jail and delivered her to the GCDF. Gulf County held a Violation of Probation warrant for her arrest. Deputy Harvey served the arrest warrant on Davis at the GCDF.

On Wednesday, February 8, Investigators P. Williams and S. Ferrell arrested Robert James Junior Williams (31) on Highway 22 in Wewahitchka. The GCSO held a warrant for his arrest for Grand Theft. Williams was transported to the GCDF.

On Thursday, February 9, The Gulf County Public Works reported to the GCSO furniture along with miscellaneous garbage had been dumped on Road 20 west of White City. Lt. T. Wood continues to investigate.

On February 9, Sgt. J. Murnan was patrolling in the 2400 block of Cobia Avenue in Highland View where he was flagged down by a citizen. The citizen reported their vehicle registration decal had been stolen off their license plate. Sgt. Murnan continues to investigate.

On Friday, February 10, the GCSO received a walk-in identity theft complaint at the Wewahitchka sub-station. Deputy M. Peek responded to investigate the complaint. The investigation revealed the complainant had numerous unauthorized charges on their credit card. This investigation has been assigned to CID.

On Saturday, February 11, the GCSO received a theft complaint in the 200 block of Bay Avenue in Wewahitchka. Deputy B. Smith responded to the complaint to investigate. The complainant reported while moving from their residence to another residence they discovered three firearms were missing. Deputy Smith continues to investigate.

On Sunday, February 12, the GCSO received a criminal mischief complaint in the 100 block of State Road 71 in Wewahitchka. Deputy M. Peek responded to the complaint to conduct an investigation. The complainant reported their recently painted store front window paint was running. The complainant believes someone deliberately pour something on the paint to ruin it. Deputy Peek continues to investigate.

On February 12, the GCSO received a 911 hang up from the 6000 block of Ganley Road in the Dalkeith area. GCSO 911 Operator called back where a male answered and a female could be heard yelling in the background. The caller then hung up a second time. Deputy M. Peek responded to conduct an investigation. The investigation revealed Stephanie Danielle Grimes (30) slapped her paramour and as a result the paramour defended himself by striking Grimes. The investigation further revealed Grimes was the primary aggressor and placed under arrest. Grimes was charged with Domestic Battery and transported to the GCDF.
