911 CALL LEADS TO LOCATION OF SEXUAL BATTERY VICTIM

Gulf County Sheriff Mike Harrison announces the arrest of Deondray Fisher (44) of Wewahitchka. Fisher was arrested by Gulf County Sheriff's Office (GCSO) Investigators yesterday, May 5th, and charged with Sexual Battery, False Imprisonment and Tampering with a Victim.

The investigation began after the Bay County Sheriff's Office contacted the GCSO regarding a possible kidnapping that occurred within their jurisdiction. Based on their investigation, the victim in the case was in the Wewahitchka area and with Fisher. The GCSO was actively canvassing an area in Wewahitchka when a 911 call was received by the GCSO Communications Center at approximately 2:00 AM. A male was heard screaming in the background of the call and the 911 operator was able to determine that the call was in the 400 block of Williamsburg Road. When the deputy arrived, the victim and Fisher were located.

Through an investigation it was determined that Fisher originally contacted the victim in Bay County and ultimately drove her to a location in Wewahitchka, where he forced the victim to have sex. An interview conducted with the victim, and one with Fisher, led investigators to secure a search warrant to search the property where the offense occurred. Investigators collected several pieces of physical evidence that substantiated the victim's statement. Fisher remains incarcerated at the Gulf County Detention Facility.
